- (1.) When the family remains on the strength of the station from which the soldier's unit proceeds, payment will be made by the paymaster at the station, under the authority of the officer commanding the unit in which the man is serving, unless, in the case of men serving abroad, the general officer commanding otherwise directs.
- (2.) When the family is left behind upon the soldier proceeding abroad, or on mobilization, or is sent home, and not accompanied by the soldier, the officer commanding the unit will forward the necessary particulars of the family upon Army Form D 118, together with a report of the circumstances in which the separation occurred, to the paymaster having the reservists of the unit (see Appendix B of Mobilization Regulations), who will issue the allowances without further authority. In cases not otherwise provided for, the payments will be made by the District Paymaster, Home District.

118a. Should it be necessary, in any exceptional case, to verify the marriage of the soldier, or the birth of any of his children, the cost incurred in obtaining marriage or birth certificates will be charged against the public in the accounts of the paymaster issuing the separation allowance.

118b. Casualties or changes affecting the issue of separation allowance at home to the family of a soldier serving at home or abroad will be immediately notified by the man's commanding officer direct to the paymaster who is issuing the allowance.

In time of war the casualty lists published in the daily press under the heading "Casualties notified by the War Office" may be taken as sufficient authority pending official confirmation.

Subscriptions and donations in support of the Charity will be thankfully received by Messrs. Cox & Co., Charing Cross, London, S.W.; by the Secretary, Colonel E. L. F. Jennings, M.V.O., to whom crossed cheques and Postal Orders on the Charing Cross Post Office should be made payable; or by the Superintendent Miss K. Bartlett, at the Home at Hampstead.

The Home was constructed and is equipped for 180 girls, and the desire of the Committee is to maintain the full complement.

The need of such an institution is apparent from the fact that there are on an average three candidates brought forward at each election to every one admitted.

The Committee earnestly appeal to a generous public to aid them in the support of the Charity. They also ask for the co-operation in the good work of every Regiment and Corps.

A contribution of but 6d. a year from each Non-Commissioned Officer and Man throughout the Service would provide for the support of a child from every Regiment.

The Home is open to visitors daily between 10 and 5, except on Saturdays and Sundays.

The Committee invite the inspection of all friends of the Soldier.

MILITARY WIDOWS' FUND, BRITISH SERVICE.

(Late Queen's Military Widows' Fund.)

The Military Widows' Fund, British Service, was established in 1820 to alleviate the distress of families of officers of the British Service and to enable them to return to England without unnecessary delay. Whenever an officer of the British Service, who is a subscriber to this Fund, dies, his family receives at once, the following assistance, namely:—Six months maintenance allowance ranging from Rs. 2,400/ to Rs. 3,600/, according to rate subscribed, plus Rs. 1,500/ for passage for the widow, plus Rs. 500/ or Rs. 300/ for passage for each child, according to whether it is over or under 12 years of age. These benefits are secured by a small subscription of Rs. 4, 3, or 2 per mensem, which is regulated by the amount of pay an officer draws. An officer, immediately on becoming a subscriber, secures at once for his wife and children, quite irrespective of length of service in India, the full benefits of the Fund in case of his death.

In 1902 the sum of Rs. 31,200/ was paid in awards to families of deceased subscribers; and the total amount paid since the establishment of the Fund in 1820 exceeds Rs. 22,00,000/.

Copies of the Regulations of the Fund can be obtained from the Honorary Secretary at Simla.
